Eductionwatch

English daily 'Pioneer' carries a weekly column titled 'Educationwatch/Jagdish Gandhi' every Sunday on the apostle of World Unity and Founder Manager of CMS, Mr Jagdish Gandhi's talks. Printed below is a clipping from the Pioneer dated September 17, 2006:

Educationwatch

In my view, human soul is essentially godly and its true essence cannot be separated from God. God wants the human soul to achieve perfection of its being, and the every person with each coming person under the shade of the True Educator and being guided by the True Educator, education to escape darkness may change through prayer and repentance. Primary and junior stages of education are sent by God to assist humanity in its spiritual evolution. In addition to the universal values of respect, courage, truthfulness, friendship and trustworthiness, the values that reflect the social evolution of the individual towards global citizenship, should be included as part of curriculum at schools.

I believe that there is a complementary need for new curriculum as the children are growing up in an environment where the values and skills are not taught to them. The curriculum should give them a better understanding of their world and the values they have been taught in school. This is an area where the school curriculum should be modified to accommodate the values and skills required for the future.

A crucial element in teaching values is the role played by parents. If parents do not teach their children the values they believe in, the children will have to learn from other sources. Parents should teach their children the values they believe in, and they should do so in a way that is relevant to their own lives and experiences.

Though schools play a significant role in shaping a child's values, the sustained reinforcement of meaningful values in the family environment is essential for any such programme.

I believe that a child is a mine rich in gems of inestimable value. Education is the tool that enables man to recover his treasures so that mankind benefits from it.

I believe that a child is a mine rich in gems of inestimable value. Education is the tool that enables man to recover his treasures so that mankind benefits from it.

Teacher

East or west, Our teacher is the best. She is our best guide, She helps us to decide. She tells us the right path, When we are in trouble. She is a book of wisdom, Which gives us knowledge. She’s a burning candle, Which gives us light. All in all, She’s the best of all.

Srishti Asthana, V Asharfabad

The Sun

Oh, Sun! Oh, Sun! You give us light, You shine with all might, And make all things bright. The birds sing sweety, And everyone laughs happily. You are a star, But very far, We can’t come to you, Because you are very far.

Nezish III Jopling Road

Memories

The little things that happen The little thing that happen Are tucked into your mind, And come again to greet you, Or most of them, you’ll find. Through many little doorways, Of which you keep the keys, They crowd into your thinking We call them Memories. But some of them are rovers And wander off and get lost. The keys grow rusty And that means- you forget But some stay ever near you, You’ll find they never move. Those keys are always shining- Those are the things you love.

Fruit I like best

My favourite fruit is the mango. It comes only in the summer season. It is yellow in colour. It has one big seed inside. Mummys peels off the skin and gives me the fruit to eat. It is fleshy and juicy. It is sweet in taste. I wish I could eat mangoes every season of the year.

Our National Flag

Dear friends, I am Tanya Srivastava from class III A. Now I am going to tell you about our National Flag. Like every nation, India too has its flag. Our National Flag has three colours. The saffron colour at the top stands for service and sacrifice. The white colour in the middle stands for truth, purity and peace. The green colour at the bottom stands for faith, energy and prosperity. The Ashok Chakra in the flag shows that virtues never die. Thus, our National Flag stands for nation’s pride, glory and independence. We must love and respect our National Flag. We all have to protect and safeguard the honour of our tri-colour flag.

Tanya Srivastava, III A Rajajipuram NB

Independence Day

Independence Day is celebrated to pay you to those Indians who fought for us and won freedom for our country. We got independence on 15 August 1947. Our great Indian leaders like Mahatma Gandhi won freedom for our country.

Our Prime Minister hoists the flag in Delhi at Red Fort. Many people come to see it. On Independence Day we sing our National Anthem. In school also Independence Day is celebrated. We have some cultural programmes, dancing competition, speech competition and many other items. On Independence Day our Principal hoists the flag in school. We raise our little flags high and sing the National Anthem. On television, we watch direct telecast of the flag hoisting ceremony and the Prime Minister’s speech. We all feel proud and feel proud of our great freedom fighters.

Celebrating 2nd October, birthday of two great national leaders

The night was very dark and Mohan was frightened. He had always been afraid of ghosts. Whenever he was alone in the dark, he was afraid that a ghost lurking in some dark corner would suddenly spring on him. And tonight it was so dark that one could barely see one’s own hand. Mohan had to go from one room to another. As he stepped out of the room, his feet seemed to turn to lead and his heart began to beat like a drum. Rambha, their old maid servant was standing by the door. “What’s the matter, son?” she asked with a laugh. “I am frightened, Dai,” Mohan answered. “Frightened, child! Frightened of what?” “See how dark it is! I’m afraid of ghosts!” Mohan whispered in a terrified voice. Rambha patted his head affectionately and said, “Whoever heard of anyone being afraid of dark!” Listen to me: Think of Rama and no ghost will dare come near you. No one will touch a hair of your head. Rama will protect you.” Rambha’s words gave Mohan courage. Repeating the name of Rama, he left the room. And from that day, Mohan was never lonely or afraid. He believed that as long as Rama was with him, he was safe from the danger. This faith gave Gandhiji strength throughout his life, and even when he died the name of Rama was on his lips.

Born in 1904, Lal Bahadur Shastri was a man unlike any other – an icon of integrity. He amassed no wealth, left behind no legacy save his formidable reputation. When he called on Indians to fast one day of the week because of the desperate food situation Indiansfasted! When he died, there was a debt of Rs. 8000/- for a car he had bought while Prime Minister. The government offered to repay the loan, but Shastrij’s wife refused. She paid off the loan herself! Those were the days ...

5. The printing press was running at full speed. The news was very important and had to be printed as soon as possible.

Autobiography of a Newspaper

The shine has worn out and my skin shows signs of aging. There was a time when I was bright, fresh, and full of life. But now I am old and grey. My hair is no longer black, but grey. My skin is no longer smooth, but wrinkled.

I was once the pride of my country. I used to be read by millions of people every day. I used to be respected and loved by everyone. But now I am just a memory of the past.

I was once a symbol of freedom and democracy. I used to be read by everyone, regardless of their background. But now I am just a paper to be discarded.

I used to be the voice of the people. I used to be the messenger of the voiceless. But now I am just a piece of paper to be thrown away.

I used to be the price of freedom. I used to be the price of democracy. But now I am just a piece of paper to be thrown away.

I used to be the symbol of the press. I used to be the symbol of freedom. But now I am just a piece of paper to be thrown away.

Is your child dozing in class?

Many parents complain that their child sleeps in class or simply that there is a lack of interest in the classroom. This mental fogginess can bog down the child’s learning, affect his confidence and lower his ability.

Why does this happen? The reason is that the brain is overworked, overloaded. It is a fact that a child in this manner. The brain is very sensitive to the healthy status of the body and is interconnected to the digestive system.

The Ortho approach leads to eating changes that the child’s body with energy giving and vitality producing nutrients. Henceforth aims to make the child’s mind razor sharp and increase his mental alertness.

What you need

Riboflavin

Cardeng

Here’s how to put it all together so that you can get the maximum nourishments from the above micronutrients.

To ½ grated carrots, 3 chopped spinach (5 leaves) add 1 tsp to ¼ bunch of Parsley and 2 Tablespoon Sunflower seeds. Squeeze lemon juice, pinch of black salt and chew over this delicious salad in the evenings after your study hours (or at any time). Another “O” for your good digestion is to give a gap of two hours before you take your dinner.

NOW WATCH:……….. your alertness ZOOM in class as you follow the above pattern.

Mysterious letters

It was late night. I was extremely tired after working very hard from sunset to sunrise. As I sat on my chair reading a book, I fell asleep out of exhaustion.

It had not been quite long when I awoke with a start. Somebody was knocking on the door. I was extremely startled and my heart started racing. I was terrified. I knew that this was not a dream, but it was not an omen either. I was not even sure who was there. In this state, I decided to go back to sleep. But, as I stepped back, I felt something under my feet. I got up and saw a shadow lying there. I picked it up and opened it. When I read it, I felt the letter to be amusing. It was addressed to me and said that if I did not return the tape recorder which I had borrowed from my neighbour, the week before, I would have to pay for it. I was quite amused as Mr Sharma, from whom I had borrowed it, was a very noble man and a very good friend of mine. I knew that this letter was not a part of anyone’s mischief. But at the same time, my mind was filled with terror at the thought of ‘paying for it.’ The entire night was no less than the night before. My blood was running cold with fear and my soul was like knocking from inside, eager to leave my body. On one hand, I was terrified and on the other, I felt it would have been one of the pranks played by somebody. This was the first time when I had faced such a situation. But after some days, I again received a similar letter. After that, I became accustomed to such letters, as they started coming to me regularly.

One night, I decided to discover who was there behind all this. That night I stood beside my window, rather than the stranger. After sometime, I saw a shadow at some distance. It came towards my house, knocked at the door and slipped away. I could not recognize that form as my face was covered with his cloak. So, without losing time, I ran after him. I ran for quite long and then reached some unknown place. It was a very terrifying sight. The hulking runs that lined the deserted street seemed to be holding up the black sky. But, I could still see the person. Suddenly, the person collided with a big stone on the road and fell down. This gave me the golden opportunity to catch hold of him. I caught him and asked him to reveal his identity. When he didn’t do so, I put inside him in which he had concealed his face. What I saw after that was beyond my imagination. He was one of my friends. Suraj was laughing while my eyes were filled with surprise. He said that he did not have any plan to terrify me but did it for his entertainment. At first, I felt very bad but then both of us burst out into a loud laughter.
